General Policy

If a homeowner contacts management with the intent to correct a violation and asks for an extension, The Board may grant such extension if it deems the extension reasonable. The decision to grant an extension may be based on violation severity, prior violation history, or other factors that may influence the Board's decision. If the homeowner does not cure the violation after the extension period, the homeowner will be immediately referred to the attorney, or the process will be resumed at the last level of the process.

Section 209.006, Texas Property Code provides that an owner is not entitled to prior notice and opportunity to cure if the owner has received any notice and not cured the same or similar violation in the preceding six months. The Association at this time can exercise any rights related to the violation under this policy of which the owner has previously been given notice for.*

Section 209.007, Texas Property Code provides that each owner may submit a written request for a hearing to the Association within thirty (30) days from the date of the letter to discuss and verify facts on a violation and resolve the matter in issue before the Board of Directors. The Association or it's agent will provide a date and time for the hearing, as well as a hearing packet not less than ten (10) days before the hearing, unless an agreement is made between the parties to hold the hearing in less time.*

Attorney Procedure

It is the option of the Board of Directors to decide when and if an account goes to the attorney. The decision to escalate an account to the attorney may be based on violation severity, prior violation history, or other factors that may influence the Board's decision. Once an account is turned over to the attorney's office, the attorney will send the homeowner a letter of representation and a demand for compliance with the Association's governing documents. If the homeowner does not respond, the attorney will pursue all available action to cure the violation through the court/legal system. If allowable by law and the Association's Declaration of Covenants, all attorneys' fees/court costs shall be the homeowner's responsibility and shall be charged to the homeowners account and the money due shall be subject to the collection policy.

Other

This policy may be amended and/or adjusted by the Board of Directors from time to time without notice. Homeowners are advised that they should contact the management company to request the most recent version of this policy if they have a question and/or need assistance in making payment arrangements.
